

U.S. FOOD & DRUG ADMINISTRATION

Office of Minority Health Lecture Series

presents

How Can Precision Medicine Influence Hispanic Health?

Tuesday, October 4th

1:00 - 2:30 PM

Cafecito Networking Event

2:30 - 4:00 PM

Building 2 RM 2045

To commemorate Hispanic Heritage Month, FDA Office of Minority Health (OMH) in collaboration with the Office of External Affairs and the Office of Health and Constituent Affairs are hosting a panel discussion on the Precision Medicine Initiative and Hispanic Health.

Panelists include FDA, NIH National Institute of Minority Health and Health Disparities, NIH National Cancer Institute, Walter Reed Military Medical Center, and the National Alliance for Hispanic Health.

To register, visit the Eventbrite page.

For Questions, please contact OMH Cariny Nuñez at Cariny.Nunez@fda.hhs.gov, OEA Gloria Sanchez-Contreras Gloria.Sanchez-Contreras@fda.hhs.gov, or OHCA Javier Chavez Javier.Chavez@fda.hhs.gov.